Four Levels of Happiness™ Certified Associate Training

Certified Associate Training is made available exclusively to dioceses that have secured a Four Levels of Happiness licensing agreement from the Spitzer Center. The two-day program equips and certifies facilitators to present the Four Levels curriculum in varying formats for diverse audiences.

For optimal learning, cohorts are limited to ten participants, two from each diocese. The training is held on the beautiful campus of Domino's Farms, which houses multiple national Catholic apostolates and a chapel where daily Mass is offered.

Training Topics Include:

- Our Catholic tradition – the gold standard on the subject of happiness
- Basic philosophical and theological underpinnings, recommended sources and resources
- The three basic presentation packages/formats
- Review and use of materials, slides, Fr. Spitzer videos, exercises, movie clips, examples
- Handling common questions and reservations
- Customizing options for different age groups, ministries, education levels
- Actual practice facilitation with feedback

Participants will receive:

- ✓ Spitzer Center Certified Associate Accreditation
- ✓ Multiple Four Levels Facilitator Slide Packages
- ✓ Participation in Quarterly Best Practices Webinars
- ✓ Regular Curriculum Updates
- ✓ Fr. Spitzer's book Finding True Happiness
- ✓ Customized 1:1 Professional Mentoring

"By knowing ourselves better and having clearer standards communicated through common language, we are better able to participate in the mission of Christ and His Church."

– Most Reverend George Lucas, Archbishop of the Diocese of Omaha

"I have presented The Four Levels of Happiness to two very diverse audiences, namely over 100 inmates in my Prison Ministry and over 750 parishioners in parish presentations, and it was received with great enthusiasm. People are amazed at how practical the teaching is, and how intimately it meshes with their spiritual lives."

– Deacon Dan Leetch, Diocese of Pueblo
